

We are against members of the Consumer Banking Association being able to solicit us at any time by telephone. We feel that the Telephone Privacy Act should continue to cover banks and long distance phone carriers, as it currently does. Please add our names to those opposed to this attempt to amend the act.